

2008 Office of Vocational Rehabilitation Degree Programs and Acceptable Course Content

Doctorate Degree

There is currently no position within the agency that requires this level of degree. At this level the courses would need to be approved on a course-by-course basis if justification reflects the current job appropriateness.

Master Degree Program

Master's in Vocational Rehabilitation

Master's in Counseling (must meet CSPD qualification) –

- prior to entering a non-MRC program individuals must successfully complete a graduate course in "Medical, Psychosocial and Cultural Aspects of Disabilities" at an approved university.

Bachelor Degree Program

No bachelor level degree programs are covered for tuition assistance at this time.

Acceptable Course Content

Acceptable course content is;

- courses required for the successful completion of one of the agency approved degree programs; or
- a course from the following list that is considered job relevant for a current position.
- limited to no more than 5 hours per semester unless approved as an exception as outlined in the Tuition Assistance Policy

Accounting

Computer Science/Data Processing

Law

Medical/Nursing/Biology

Education/Education Administration

Vocational Education

Math/Statistics

Office Administration

Public Administration

Economics/Marketing

Psychology

Sociology/Counseling/

Business Management

Research

Nutrition/Dietetics

English

Political Science

Adult Education

Special Education
Vocational Rehabilitation

Rehabilitation Technology

*Requests made for courses on this list as well as any special requests for courses not listed on this document will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Specific documentation that must accompany the request:

- Completed agency tuition assistance form with including employee and supervisor signatures, course description and justification along with a copy of the catalogue description for the course.